

Benefits of Employing Apprentices

83% of apprentices said their career prospects have improved.

92% of employers believe Apprenticeships lead to more motivated and satisfied workforce.

Apprenticeships provide a typical return of £26-£28 for every £1 of government investment in apprenticeships at levels 2 and 3.

76% of those employers who employ apprentices agree they make their workplace is more productive by £214 a week.

96% of apprentice employers say they are beneficial to their business.

77% of employees believe apprenticeships make them more competitive..

82% of employers take on apprentices to build skills capacity within their business.

83% of employers rely on their Apprenticeship programmes to provide skilled workers that they need for the future.

81% of consumers favour using a company which takes on apprentices.

80% of companies who invest in apprentices have reported significant increase in employee retention.